[fn p. 8]

[Joseph McBride, son of Isaiah McBride made application under the 1832 for the services of his father who died September 26, 1832; Joseph states in another filing that his father died at the age of 80, that he did not leave a widow, 'his wife having died many years before him'; that he believes his father served at least 8 months based on the statements of the veterans named above.]
