State of North Carolina, Mecklenburg County: Court of Pleas & Order Sessions August Term 1832

On this 28th day of August 1832 personally appeared before the Justices of Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for the County of Mecklenburg and State aforesaid at the August Term thereof for the year aforesaid William Hutchinson a resident of the County of Mecklenburg and State aforesaid aged 82 years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

That he was born in the year 1750 in the County of Augusta State of Virginia and moved to the County of Mecklenburg State of North Carolina in the year 1774 where he resided at the commencement of the war. That his age was recorded in his father's Bible – but where it is he does not know. That when he entered the service during the revolutionary War he was a resident of Mecklenburg County aforesaid. That he first volunteered as a private in what is here generally called the Snow Campaign. That ~~Col. William~~ Thomas Polk was the Colonel and General Richardson the Commanding officer. That they were [several illegible words] of the Tories. That they went out near the Saluda River where the Tories were encamped. That the Tories surrendered without a battle. That during this campaign he acted as issuing & providing Commissary for the Regiment. That he was out during this tour for three months – the term for which he volunteered. That he was again volunteered in Captain John Brownfield's Company and was appointed Lieutenant in said Company – General Rutherford was the commanding officer. Sanders, Moore and Brandon were Colonels. That he marched with said officers from Charlotte, North Carolina to Purysburg South Carolina. He was in no engagement that when at Purysburg the commanding officer was General Lincoln of the Continental line – that during this he served five months and two weeks. That he again volunteered in Captain Mebane's Company under Colonel George Alexander. They marched from Charlotte to Cross Creek – now known as the town Fayetteville where he again was appointed issuing Commissary to the Guard that guarded the prisoners from that place to Hillsboro – he was engaged in active service during this tour about six weeks. That he again volunteered in Captain Jack's Company – from Charlotte that the Colonel was Adam Alexander and Colonel John Phifer and under the command of General Rutherford. That this tour was against the Cherokee Indians that they marched from Charlotte to the head of the Catawba [River] when and where he was appointed an Indian spy – he was out during this tour about five months. That he again volunteered in the company of Captain Thomas Alexander to guard a magazine at Charlotte – that he served upon this duty for three months. That he again volunteered sometime in the year 1781 and raised a company at Charlotte NC, marched to ~~Palmer's~~ what was called Palmer's old field in South Carolina the place of Rendezvous and was there commissioned as a Captain in the State Troop of South Carolina by General Sumpter [sic, Thomas Sumter] and belonged to Colonel William Polk's Regiment – and served during 10 months – the time for which he volunteered. That he was at the taking of Friday's Fort on the Congaree River at the taking of Orangeburg – and at the taking of Fort Mott [sic, Motte] or Thompson's Fort on the Congaree – he was engaged at the battle of Strawberry near Moncks Corner¹ – and was discharged by Colonel William Henderson of the Continental line during the illness of General Sumter. He was discharged at what was called Brown's old field. That this discharge was given in the spring after the term of service expired. That he has yet remains of his commission. That it has got wet – and is now illegible and incapable of being [illegible word] produced as satisfactory evidence of that fact and that the whole time of his service was about 28 months and that his commission was signed by General Sumter (while he was a Captain in Polk's Regiment). That he is old and infirm and as to the particular periods that he served except what is stated in this is Declaration he cannot remember – he has no documentary evidence of his service nor
